

KEANE

A couple of weeks ago we spent a day in Bexhill making a video for our new single, Sovereign Light Café. This is a place we used to go as kids, and the song talks about a lot of local spots we remember from growing up around here.

We wanted to say a big thank you to all the people who generously gave up their time to come and be in the video with us, and to the people of Bexhill for the very warm welcome.

Thanks so much,

Tom, Tim, Jesse and Richard.
