Classic cyclists enjoy latest social event

Tweed and tea - a very nice combination for cyclists

An intrepid handful of members from The Classic Cycle Group set off on their ancient bicycles on Sunday afternoon from Bexhill Station for their regular Tweed & Tea bicycle ride along the seafront.

CCG events organiser Ray Konyn said: "Due to the adverse damp, blustery weather conditions in the afternoon, we spent a lot more time drinking tea and sampling cakes in a local tea room than cycling!"

All are welcome to join their next Tweed & Tea ride which will be 2pm Sunday November 10 meeting at Bexhill Station, and details can be found on their website calendar at: www.classiccyclegroup.co.uk Also, for anyone interested in finding out more, The Classic Cycle Group join The Bexhill Wheelers last Tuesday of each month 7.30pm for a social gathering and update of latest cycling events in Bexhill at The Coast Bar & Grill, De La Warr Parade, Bexhill TN40 1LS.

The Classic Car Group - slightly less bother than peddling up The Pyrenees!
